

Agreement about your Tour

We, “The volunteer Guide Association of Kansai Traditional Handicrafts”-(KADEKO S.G.G KANSAI for shot) would like to get your understanding and acceptance about the agreement shown below.

1. We offer our guide service with voluntary mind, however, we would like you to compensate the guide expenses mentioned below.
① Basic guide charge(3000yen/day) ② Transportation fee and meals for guide including the cost (guide home to the meeting place 2000yen) plus visited places and meals.
In addition too. It might be necessary to pay extra charge in case of professional requests (for instance special knowledge interpretation work, travel agent group tour as well as touristic busy season in Japan) to us.
When we have special request like the above guide, we might ask you to pay the guide reservation deposit in advance to avoid cancellation from the tourists without notice. So, we will inform you to get mutual agreement in advance soon after receiving your guide request.
2. We cannot accept any responsibility for injury, loss or damages caused by the client.
3. We'll do your best to make our goodwill guidance most pleasant and informative, but at the same time We'd like to ask you not to expect us so skilful guidance as a professional guide performs.
4. Our service time, as a general rule, starts at 10:00 a.m. and ends at 17:00 p.m. with flexibility to the extent of an hour or so. Sometimes you may be requested to accept short hour service.

The above-mentioned are the basic rules to be abided by during your tour in Kyoto, Nara, Osaka, Kobe, Shiga and Wakayama with your volunteer guide dispatched by KADEKO S.G.G Kansai.
